Event Preview Fact Sheet

This Week's Anderson's Maple Syrup Chevrolet at Auto Club Speedway ... After capturing his first top-10 finish of the season at Las Vegas Motor Speedway on March 8, Brian Scott and his No. 2 Anderson's Maple Syrup Chevrolet Camaro will once again race chassis No. 110 this weekend at Auto Club Speedway. Scott finished seventh in the team's first intermediate race this season and has a solid notebook on the series most popular type race track heading into Auto Club Speedway. This chassis has finished 14th or better in the seven previous races it has been utilized. Scott earned an eighth-place finish at Auto Club Speedway, last March.

Scott at Auto Club Speedway ... Scott will be making his seventh start this weekend in the Treatmyclot.com 300. In six previous starts, Scott has captured one top-five and three top-10 finishes with an average start of 11.3 and an average finish of 12.2. Scott has completed 100 percent of the laps he has attempted, with three laps led in the series' last race at the two-mile speedway.

Anderson's Maple Syrup Joins the No. 2 Camaro ... This weekend, Anderson's Maple Syrup will serve as primary sponsor on the No. 2 Chevrolet Camaro. Albertsons grocery chain will also serve as co-primary sponsor alongside Anderson's Maple Syrup at Auto Club Speedway. The family-owned and operated business joins Richard Childress Racing this season as primary sponsor for Scott at Auto Club Speedway and Charlotte Motor Speedway in May. In addition to the primary sponsorship, the Wisconsin-based company will have associate sponsorships throughout the season. Proudly made in the USA, Anderson's family promise is to provide their partners with the finest all-natural maple products. They currently sit seventh in the driver point standings heading into Auto Club Speedway this Saturday.

BRIAN SCOTT QUOTES:

Is Auto Club Speedway one of the most fun tracks to race at just because of all the options? And they seem to be good options?

"Yeah I think California is a lot of fun, unfortunately you kind of race yourself at California. It's a big track, the cars get spread out and it's really unfortunate, because as a driver it's a fun place."

How much are you going to rely on all the notes from the next couple of weeks going into Fontana?

"It's going to be a work in progress. With the new rules package, teams have done testing and we have done testing to try to figure it out, but we are still adjusting and still working on it. I'm sure the set-up from now to then will adjust and change a lot. We had a great run at Las Vegas with our No. 2 Camaro and I feel we have a solid foundation for the 1.5-mile tracks coming up on the schedule."
